Inspiration Questions
Cities

- What is your civilization called?
- What are the names of your cities?
- What was your city built near? And why?
- How was your civilization built?
- What is at the center of your civilization?
Religion

Do your people have a religion? If not why?
Is your religion polytheistic or monotheistic?
What are the names of your gods?
Where are the gods worshiped?
How are the gods worshiped?
Art and Architecture

- What do the buildings in the city look like?
- What were the buildings made of?
- What was the most important building?
- Where did the people live?
- What did the art look like?
- What did the art mean?
- Why was the art important?
Social Classes

Are there social classes?
What were the social classes based on?
Who was in each class?
Who were the most important people? And why?
Why aren't there any social classes?
Organized Government

Who is the leader of the government?
How was the leader chosen?
What were the responsibilities of the government?
What did the government control?
What were some government jobs?
Job Specialization

What were the most important jobs?
What kind of skills did they need?
Why were these jobs needed?
What were they responsible for?
What job did most people have?
Writing System

- What is the writing system called?
- What did it look like?
- What was the writing system used for?
- Why was it important?
- Who knew how to use it?
Public Works

- What kind of public works were there?
- Who was in charge of them?
- What did the government pay for and why?
- How did the public works help the people?